Free Medical Camp was organised by the Women's Studies Centre of Madurai Kamaraj University in association with Madurai Meenakshi Mission Hospital on 05.09.2014 at Palkalai Nagar Hospital Campus, Madurai-625 021. The Medical Camp was inaugurated by Dr. Kalyani Mathivanan, Vice-Chancellor, Madurai Kamaraj University, by lighting Kuthuvilakku and started at 9.30 a.m.

The Medical Camp was organised with the objective of providing free medical examination/checkup, provide counseling and preventive measures on Diabetics, Blood Pressure Cardiac & other ailments and create an awareness on the need of personal hygiene in prevention of disabling diseases.

Efficient Doctors from Madurai Meenakshi Mission Hospital and assistants were participated in the medical camp worked non stop and checkup the patients and provide counseling and required medicines to them. The patients were greatly appreciated their love and care. There was a steady flow of patients during the camp and it made work easier especially dispensing of medicine and to check the blood pressure of the patients. Cardiac checkup, Eye checkup and Dental checkup were also done in the medical camp.

Nearly 480 patients were benefited through this camp. Students/Staffs from the Madurai Kamaraj University and the people from villages nearby the University were participated and benefited through the medical camp.

The success of the medical camp is highly attributed to the active involvement of various dignitaries including the donors of medicines by way of volunteering their time, energy and expertise. It is all because of the input of everybody who came out to help that the medical camp was a success. The beneficiaries of medical camp were happy and satisfied with doctors and their dedicated services. They requested the Women's Study Centre of Madurai Kamaraj University that more camps should be conducted in the days to come.
