BACKGROUND OF THE SYMPOSIUM

Over the last 2-3 decades, the United Nation bodies have held Conferences, establishing global regulations and goals to protect our planet from the adverse impacts of rapid climate change. In this regard, the 26th session of United Nations Conference on Parties (COP26) was held in Glasgow, Scotland from 31st October to 12th November 2021, under the co-presidency of the United Kingdom and Italy. The COP26 resulted in the acceptance of the "Glasgow Climate Pact," which allows for the finalization of the Paris Agreement's norms of application, but falls short of the initial goals. This virtual international symposium will expose participants to a series of plenary lectures by National and International experts working on various aspects of the outcomes of the UN Climate Change Conference (COP26), as well as a forum for discussion of future actions to be taken to keep our planet safe.
