“The Fourfold Varna System of Manu and the later efforts by the Buddha and Emperor Ashoka in propagating non-violence were meant to civilize the Aryans.”²

Abstract

This article titled “Deceived and Belied: Scuffled Life of Tamil Diaspora” gives an overview of the migrant labourers living in vulnerable conditions. The political condition prevailing in India turned out to be favourable to the British to accomplish their objective through treachery and conspiracy of the East India Company. According to the emigration records about one-third of adult females accompanied their spouse. The Government of India indentured emigration and the recruiters, so a need of a campaign for recruiting for Indian Defence Force was needed to stop recruiting for colonial emigration. The article overviews the plunderers and the plundered life depicting the life concerning the alleged ill-treatment of Indian immigrant coolies in the plantations, and the situation of indentured system in India, also there was a trust the Government of India will take note of the significance and the widespread character of the agitation against the indenture system and keep their plighted word for its total abolition is a hope highlighted in this scenario.
