History: From the ancient shrine located near the Pagoda point which is 5 km from Yercaud Lake, stone age implements have been found. Ancient history is relatively unknown and never explored. When the Telugu Kings captured the Thondai Mandalam in Tamilnadu, the first settlement in the hills came from Kanjeevaram area. Tamil refugees from the nearest plains also started settled there. David Cockburn, the Scottish collector of Salem district, between 1820 & 1829, was called the ‘Father of Yercaud’ because he helped in the development of the resources of the Shervaroys and for introducing the cultivation of coffee, pears and apple. The first survey of the Shervaroys hills was undertaken in 1827. Though the first European house was built in 1840 the importance was given to planters by Richardson during the same period. The cool climate attracted Christian missionaries, who established the Sacred Heart Convent for girls, the Nazareth Girls’ Hr. Sec. School for Girls, and the Montfort School Shervaroys has been confined solely to coffee plantations. Tea plantation has been introduced in 1840s by Dr.Wallich on the property of G.F.Fischer. Cinnamon trees have been introduced in Yercaud and Schools such as the Holy Cross Novitiate House, started by the Brothers of Don Bosco, followed these. Mr. G.F. Fisher a European of German origin purchased the Salem Zamindar in 1836. He was the first and only European Zamindar in the Presidency and acquired 125000 acres. The First metallic roads were laid only in the early 20th Century.
