

National Training Programme on Drudgery Reduction, Health, Food and Nutrition for Tribal Women in Tamilnadu in Kollihills, Namakkal Dt.

National Training Programme on Drudgery Reduction, Health, Food and Nutrition for Tribal Women in Tamilnadu in Kollihills, Namakkal Dt., jointly organized by Dept. of Communication, Madurai Kamaraj University with Vigyan Prasar, Govt. of India at Valvil Ori Arangam, Kollihills, Trichy Dt., during 24&25 July 2017.

Tribal women were sensitized about the drudgery reduction equipment including paddy seeder, finger guard, improvised ladder, twin wheel hoe weeder, fruit harvester etc., They were also sensitized about the health and hygiene particularly reproductive health and general hygiene with reference to clean India initiatives. Benefits of traditional food habits and awareness on processed food and artificial ingredients in the market. Dr. Panneerselvam, Director of Tribal Research Centre, Govt. of Tamilnadu and Dr.A.Santha, Director, Media Research Forum were among the trainers of this S&T Communication Programme. 20 Tribal women were trained during this programme.

Inaugural Function of the 2-Day Training Programme at Kollimalai

Session with Dr.A.Santha, Director, Media Research Forum.

Release of Source Book on Drudgery Reduction Technologies for Women in Rural Areas by Dr.K.Selvarani, School of Agricultural Science, Kalasalingam University.

Practical Session on Drudgery Reduction